From TripAdvisor

Norwich boasts museums spanning ten centuries of history as well as a renovated city center with a pleasant pedestrian area lined with modern businesses and thriving nightlife. With two colleges, both with renowned art and writing programs, travellers will also step into a vibrant cultural scene.

Tourist sites, dubbed the Norwich 12, include the historical Norwich Castle, Norwich Cathedral and City Hall, as well as the newer library and the glass Forum which hosts events from opera to skating.

Norwich has two large shopping malls, Castle Mall and Intu Chapelfield, as well as an iconic market and high street, selling everything from local produce to top brands. There are many restaurants serving all kinds of food. Some highlights include The Last Wine Bar, Namaste, Grosvenors Fish Bar and Pinnocchio's on St. Benedicts Street.
